DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

Applicant should note that he included the wrong serial number on the Form PTO-1449. Applicant put 10/774,725 when the correct serial number is 10/774,735. Fortunately, the Form PTO-1449 was not filed in the wrong patent application. Applicant should be more careful of such mistakes or typos in the future to avoid mishandling and/or insertion of his correspondence and papers in the wrong patent application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, lines 32-37, as numbered by the Applicant, the phrases "said abutment element can move firstly over a first stroke" and "and then over a second stroke during which the abutment element continues over its stroke on its own" is unclear and confusing language. Also, on line 37, is "its stroke" the same as the "first stroke" defined in line 32 or the "second stroke" defined in 36. Perhaps "its stroke" should be changed to "said first stroke" or said second stroke", whichever of the two is appropriate. If it is a totally different stroke then it should be defined as such.

The aforementioned problems render the claim vague indefinite.. Clarification and/or correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Blair et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,736,461 B2).

Blair et al teach the structure as claimed (See Figures 1-18 and specification)

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Blair et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,827,404 B2).

Blair et al teach the structure as claimed (See Figures 1-19 and specification).

Claims 2-11 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Prior art fails to teach the two-springs respectively connected to the two cables, the two springs serving to co-operate with the two abutment elements respectively of the same drive mechanism, as defined in claim 2, and a drive mechanism in the form of a plate on which a pivot pin is mounted, said plate having two opposite faces on which two abutment elements are mounted respectively; and two spiral springs, each of which has a first end serving to come into contact with the abutment element that is associated with it, and a second end fixed to said pivot pin.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Sakurai et al, Niimi et al, Reubeuze, Rausch et al, Coman et al,

Tame, Bonk, Kojima, Yamada, Sasaki et al teach similar structures to that of the present invention.
